ACT 55.
AN ACT
RELATING TO RESERVED QUESTIONS, AMENDING SECTIONS 1859 AND 1863 OF THE REVISED LAWS.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 1859 of the Revised Laws is hereby amended by adding thereto the following sentence:
"Questions may be reserved by Circuit Judges in chamber matters in like manner as in term matters under Sections 1862 and 1863."

SECTION 2. Section 1863 of the Revised Laws is amended by adding thereto the following sentence:
"The Supreme Court may, in its discretion, return any reserved question for decision in the first instance by the Circuit Court or Judge."

SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

Approved this 12th day of April, A. D. 1907.

G. R. CARTER,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

ACT 56.
AN ACT

RELATING TO PRIVATE WAYS AND WATER RIGHTS, AMENDING SECTIONS 2199 TO 2205, BOTH INCLUSIVE, OF THE REVISED LAWS.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

SECTION 1. Section 2199 of the Revised Laws is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 2199. Definitions. The word 'commissioner' wherever used in this chapter, shall refer to the judge of the circuit court within which the property affected is situated. The word 'court' shall refer to and mean the supreme court. The word 'party' or 'parties' shall refer to and mean the respective parties to the controversy, before the judge or court. The word 'controversy' shall refer to and mean the matter or question at issue before the judge or court. The words 'private individuals or persons' shall relate to and mean either individuals, companies or corporations, or any others except the Territory."

SECTION 2. Section 2200 of the Revised Laws is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 2200. Jurisdiction. The circuit judges shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all controversies respecting rights of private ways and water rights, as in this chapter provided."

SECTION 3. Section 2201 of the Revised Laws is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 2201. Procedure. It shall be the duty of said judges within their respective circuits to hear and determine all controversies respecting rights of private ways and water rights, between private individuals, or between private individuals and the Territory. Any person or persons interested, or the Territory, may apply for the settlement of any rights involved hereunder, whereupon the judge shall issue a written or printed summons in like form as that used before a circuit judge at chambers to the party or parties defendant. It shall be personally served upon each land owner or occupant having an interest in the controversy, whenever such owner or occupant can be found. If, however, such owner or occupant cannot be found for such service, the judge shall cause a notice or notices in the English or Hawaiian language, as he shall deem most efficient, to be given either by posting upon the premises the owners or occupants whereof cannot be found, or by insertion in one or more newspapers, which publication shall continue for at least two full weeks prior to the date set for hearing. Such notice shall designate the time and place of hearing, shall indicate the nature of the application made, and shall notify all parties interested to attend and prove their rights, or they will be adjudicated without such attendance, besides any other matter deemed important by the judge. Such notice may be published in any case in the discretion of the judge. No summons shall be set aside or dismissed because of any technical informality, provided it shall set forth the time and place of hearing, and the nature of the right claimed, in terms sufficiently clear for the appraisal of all parties interested. Parties may appear personally or by properly authorized attorney."

SECTION 4. Section 2202 of the Revised Laws is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 2202. Same; Hearing, Decision, Record. At the time set for hearing, service of summons or publication of notice having been proved, the judge shall hear the evidence offered relative to the right in controversy, and shall, as far as possible, ascertain the rights of absent parties, not served where notice as herein provided shall have been published. He may, if deemed desirable, or conclusive to the rendering of a correct decision, visit the locality where the controversy arose. He shall give such decision as may in each particular case appear to be in conformity with vested rights and shall be just and equitable between the parties. The decision shall state expressly the findings of fact on the evidence, and shall in cases of right of way clearly indicate the location (if possible) and nature of the way; if on a water right, it shall state the proportion of time for use, and any other things necessary to the right. It may also regulate the methods by which water may be obtained, and by which its supply can be controlled. All of the testimony and the decision shall be recorded in books of record to be kept and preserved by the judge. The said books, when filled, shall be deposited with the clerks of the respective courts. The decisions of the several judges shall be final and binding upon all parties except those who may be absent from the Territory without a legal representative in the Territory during the whole time of the pendency of such controversy, subject to the right of appeal."

SECTION 5. Section 2203 of the Revised Laws is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 2203. Costs. There may be taxed as costs in cases arising hereunder, besides the usual statutory costs as allowed by district courts for service, summons, oaths and otherwise, not over twenty cents a folio for copies of the evidence and decision either on appeal or as furnished to any party. The costs may, in the discretion of the judge, be divided, or taxed to the losing party. In case of appeal the final award as to costs shall abide the decision of the court."

SECTION 6. Section 2204 of the Revised Laws is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 2204. Appeal. Any party aggrieved by the decision of the judge may appeal therefrom to the supreme court within ten days from the rendition of the decision and within said period shall pay all costs accrued and for certificate and record on appeal, and shall deposit with the judge a good and sufficient bond to the clerk of the court, in the sum of one hundred dollars, conditioned for the payment of costs further to accrue in case of defeat. In case of appeal, the judge shall promptly transmit to the clerk of the court a copy of the record, together with any exhibits filed, the bond for costs, and all costs not strictly retainable by him or actually disbursed. The court may permit the introduction of new evidence which could not with due diligence have been obtained before, and its decision shall be final and binding except as to parties absent as aforesaid."

SECTION 7. Section 2205 of the Revised Laws is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 2205. Judge, Powers. The judge shall have power to administer oaths, to punish contempts, to grant adjournments, to subpoena and compel the attendance of witnesses, to issue execution for costs, to enforce the specific performance of judgment, and generally to exercise the same authority in regard to their special jurisdiction as is by law conferred upon circuit judges at chambers."

SECTION 8. Nothing in this Act contained shall affect causes and matters which shall at the date of the taking effect of this Act have been partially tried or heard by any commissioner as constituted under the heretofore existing law; and such commissioners shall retain their jurisdiction to conclude and decide the same in like manner and with the same effect as though this law had not been passed. All other pending controversies are hereby transferred to the circuit judges, respectively, within whose jurisdiction the same may be.

SECTION 9. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

Approved this 12th day of April, A. D. 1907.

The Treasurer of the Territory shall keep all sums so set apart in a separate deposit. The sums so set apart shall be payable to the retiring occupant and shall be disbursed on warrants drawn by the Auditor upon approved vouchers of the Commissioner.
